DISSERTATION RESEARCH

How industry segregated cities: The environmental dimensions of late 19th and early 20th century urban inequality. Three standalone papers presenting a comparative study of urban environmental inequality at the turn of the 20th century, drawing on an original computational approach to mapping urban industry in that period.

Committee:
- Scott Frickel, Sociology and Institute at Brown for Environment and Society, Brown University
- Margot Jackson, Sociology and Population Studies and Training Center, Brown University
- Jennifer Candipan, Sociology and Population Studies and Training Center, Brown University
